Help Bring 250 PCs to our Schools!

Two very generous corporate donors anonymously gave 100 refurbished computers to the Ashland Public Schools this summer – then another 100 and now 50 more! This is a tremendous gift to our district, where many old computers reside in pockets throughout the schools and must be coaxed to perform at even the most basic level.

The donated PCs are compatible with our schools' networks and will enable teachers and students to actively integrate technology into their daily lessons -- the only catch is, the PCs came without monitors.

With your support, the AEFI hopes to raise funds to purchase 250 monitors at $115 each to get these “new” PCs up and running quickly! We are getting close, with 191 sponsored as of January!

Many of the district's older CRT/glass monitors have flickering issues, create eye strain, emit radiation, take excessive time to warm up, and cannot fully display the images projected by today's software programs.

The new flat-screen monitors will produce sharp, crisp text and graphics, and fast response times will provide superior clarity for moving images. They will also meet stringent worldwide environmental, ergonomic, ecological and recycling standards.

We hope you will contribute to the PC Monitor Campaign to provide much needed technology access for students and teachers alike. In these difficult economic times, your gift today will have an immediate positive impact on education in Ashland. Used flat-screens are welcome too! Thank you!
